Catastrophe: Why did you take the plans for the Heisenberg device? You knew The Elector would use it for evil.

Arsyn: I’m not just another member of your squad, Cat.

Catastrophe: And so you kick your best friend out a thirteen-story window?

Arsyn: I am a superhero and you treated me like a sidekick.

Catastrophe: That was Welvin’s decision, not mine.

Arsyn: I don’t like The Elector any more than you do. But I will never work for Welvin Da Great again.

Catastrophe: The Elector will destroy London!

Arsyn: Don’t you think I know that? She sent me to patrol the city as it burns. I have my own squad now.

Catastrophe: But we had ... Squad Goals, Arsyn. Squad Goals.
